Whoops! Peter Luther m. Alcinda Frances Hefner, b. 21 Fe. 1849, Fletcher, Blue Mound Twp., McLean Co,, Ill. d. 19 July 1935, Lexington, Ill. buried Lexington cem.

From Eliz. Gilmore; Wm. Champe Popejoy, b. 1822 md. Matilda Flesher, dau. of Conrad, 10 May 1839. Matilda b. 30 Jan. 1823.

Now to dispute this,I have from McLean Co,, Ill.1842-44 marriage records, Wm. Popejoy-Matilda Ann Flesher 4/1844.
And, from McLean Co., Ill marriage records 1831-55 V.1 p.14 B-35 I have,Wm. Popejoy md Matilda 5/11/1844. (I chose to accept the latter.)

Hopefully, some of this will provide a new date or so, and,establish whether our lines are the same.

Enclosed an S.A.S.E. for your convenience in answering.

Dear Tenney,

Thank you for your letter of 19 Nov 1983 and will respond before the holidays began since I am on a week's vacation from the public library where I am employed.

I am not familiar with the name Elizabeth Gilmore and wonder what her line from the Popejoy's can be? As with so many of these Popejoy researchers, no proofs are provided. I can only certainly prove my line back to Edward Popejoy who married Martha McGarey on 13 Jan 1814 in Butler Co., Ohio. All other information has been gathered from the work of many people with few proofs and from the two books of Jack Popejoy, Popejoy family in America, 1700-1976 (c1977) and Popejoy, past and present, 1680-1980 (c1982). I list my descent from the immigrant William who arrived on the ship "Samuel" from Bristol, England, because of the work done by others which indicates the descent of all Popejoys from this immigrant to Baltimore.

Jack's books do have good ideas for further research and does list early sources in Maryland and Virginia which he received from many people over the years. He apparently decided to publish after receiving so much material. Contributbrs for his material on the Fleshers were: Shirley Hunt; Arlene J. Wilson; Mildred F. Hall; Elmer L. Popejoy and Walter B. Popejoy. Are you familiar with any of those names?

Concerning the old story of the marriage of Terrance Popejoy to Elizabeth Ann Champe, daughter of Sgt Maj John L. Champe - see the enclosed letter to Ted Sloane. I can not understand how this story has survived for so many years with so much written about John Champe. Never in all of the published articles have I seen a reference to any daughter Elizabeth Ann. I have mentioned this to so many people over the years and no one changes their story or comes up with a proof. I would really appreciate your comments!! When I run a query on the Popejoy family, I always list the name Champe in hopes someone with have the long looked for proof.

From Jack's book:

William Popejoy (1706 tax roll, Baltimore Co. Maryland)
William Popejoy (1704 rent rolls, "Maryland rent rolls 1700-1707)

William^{2} Popejoy (listed in Old Baltimore Co., Maryland in 1714 as young and unmarried, and again in 1719 as unmarried - source not stated) In 1771, Nathaniel gave a deposition that his father, William Popejoy, about 48 years ago went upon the plantation as an overseer. Deposition supposed to be in Fairfax Co, so should place William in that county (?) in 1723.

Nathaniel^{3} Lists many sources

The book is quite large, 478 pages, and is probably well worth the money to assist one in further Popejoy research. I think it is still available from Ann Gregath Company, Box 1045, Cullman, AL 35055. The cost is 35.00, postpaid. If you order it, you really need only Vol II - Popejoy past and present, 1680-1980. Jack, as far as I can tell, has included everything in the Volume II that was in his first book. No need to have both really. I purchased the first before the 1982 book was published, so I do have both.

Will, after the holidays, go through what I have received over the years from others and copy anything I think important.

Sincerely

Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

Thank you for your dues for the 1982-83 year. At the last meeting of the Executive Committee of the Ohio Genealogical Society, we were approved as a Chapter! I imagine we will receive our charter at the annual meeting, but haven't heard as yet.

I was going through some files the other day, and came across a letter from you dates 21 September 1981. It must have gotten lost in the shuffle, and I am terribly sorry not to have answered it sooner. Please forgive me. I could make lots of excuses - all valid ones - but it doesn't help the fact I haven't answered before this.

I think I am caught up on research enough that I can help you if you like. I charge $4 per hour, no mileage charge within Fayette County. Do you want copies of the will of John Conner, or an abstract? I'm not sure if the court charges 50¢ per page of $1 oer page. If you want copies, I can get an estimate, and let you know, or go ahead and have them made, and send you the bill. Whichever is the most convenient for you.

As for photographs of John Conner, Alvina Popejoy Conner, Edward Popejoy and Martha Popejoy - their headstones that is, I can take poloroid, 35 mm or Kodak. I haven't been to Higbee Cem., but it seems to me that it isn't very far from the road, and I may be able to have access to it now (depending on weather conditions, of course). I would only charge for the film and developeing. If you need any other work done on the Conners or Popejoys, let me know and I'll be happy to check it out. You may send a retainer to cover one or two hours, whatever you like.

Good luck with your research.

Sincerely,

Sandy Fackler

Dear Mrs. Dunneley,

Thank you for your check and joining our society. I am enclosing a combination application form and information sheet. We would appreciate you filling out the bottom portion and returning it for our records.

As yet we are not a member (chapter) of the Ohio Genealogical Society, but once we get 15 people who belong to OGS, we hope to.

We use the same format as far as queries and ancestor cards as OGS. We hope you will send us yours. We hope to have our newsletter out shortly after Sept 1, and would like to have your query for inclusion. If you have any Bible records, newspaper clippings, etc., that would be of interest to our members, please send them as well.

If you need any research done in Fayette Co., we have 3 professional genealogists:
Jane Rankin 4231 SR. 41 NW, Washington C.H., OH 4316
George Robinson, Jr. Box 266, Washington C.H., OH 43160
Sandy Fackler Box 119 Washington C.H., OH 43160

Again, thank you for joining.

Sandy Fackler Corr. Secy

Attn: Sandy Fackler:

Enclosed is my check in the amount of $5.00 for membership fees for 1982. I have just sent fees to the Ohio Genealogical Society for the year and indicated that I was a member of Fayette County, also. Any news on Chapter status as yet?

I had a letter from 3rd cousin, Sherwood Alpha Conner, of Heath, Ohio. He mentioned that he had recently met you while doing some Fayette County research for us. I still need much done and would appreciate any names of people available to search Fayette County for me. I am enclosing an envelope for suggestions.

Enjoydd the first newsletter and looking forward to others.

Sincerely,

Mary

Other occupations were being practiced by Fairfax residents and they often had orphan apprentices. Some examples are:

John Sumers, cordwainer
Edmund Linton, carpenter
Manasseh Lyles, carpenter and cordwainer
James Connell, joyner [sic]
Nathaniel Popejoy, cordwainer
Lee Massey, attorney.

In retrospect, the 1750s witnessed the loss of Loudoun County, the first real growth in Alexandria, an increase in population, the expansion in the number of roads, and the removal of the courthouse from "the place called Springfield" to Alexandria. The county had changed markedly in ten years, and the concentration of population, wealth, and power along the river was beginning to make itself felt.

Before proceeding with the 1760s, it is worthwhile relating an interesting and quixotic series of events witnessed by the citizens of Fairfax County, and more specifically of Alexandria, in the spring of 1755. If the events were not quixotic then, they have certainly become so in later recapitulation.

The story really began a year earlier in 1754 when upon hearing that the French were building fortifications on the Ohio River, which was then claimed by Virginia, Governor Dinwiddie sent twenty-two-year-old George Washington with some colonial militia to build a fort at the forks of the Ohio. When Washington arrived, he found that the French were already at work fortifying the forks. He retreated down river, but in July 1754 was forced to surrender to the French. Washington and his men were allowed to return home if they would carry the message that Ohio belonged to France. Dinwiddie then asked the London government for help, and they responded by sending General Edward Braddock and about one thousand British regulars to fight the French in Ohio.

The troops sent to Alexandria were Sir Peter Halkett's 44th Regiment of Foot and Colonel Thomas Dunbar's 48th Regiment of Foot, each consisting of about 500 men whose number Braddock hoped to increase with colonial militia. They arrived in Alexandria in mid-March aboard thirteen transport and three ordinance ships, and after disembarking, made camp outside of town. When Braddock arrived in late March he made his headquarters in Alexandria at the home of the merchant John Carlyle. It was while he was at Carlyle's house that Braddock had a meeting with five colonial governors: William Shirley of Massachusetts, Robert Dinwiddie of Virginia, James DeLancey of New York, Robert Morris of Pennyslvania, and Horatio Sharpe of Maryland. Sharpe had earlier invited the governors to meet at Annapolis, with Braddock and Dinwiddie traveling to the Maryland capital. However,

There were five cases of fornication: Thos. Lewis with Eliz. Harris; Col. John Colvill with Mary Carny; Wyat William with Isabel Sankstone; Michael Melton and Martha Evans; Simon Pearson. There were three cases of adultery: John McDaniel with Margaret Gooding; Wm. May with his housekeeper; Joseph Cash with Joseph Hith's wife. There were a number of cases of retailing spirits without a license, but only two robberies or burglaries: John Briggs and Samuel Cudozier were brought before the court for taking "7 Guineys" and some other property from Henry Awbrey, and Samuel Gray for breaking into the clerk's office.

The more serious crimes were tried at the court in Williamsburg, but they were usually brought before the county court first. An example of such a case was that of Daniel Foot who was charged with "assaulting & ravishing Ann Shiel." Foot was put in jail in Fairfax "til he shall be removed to the Publick Goal in Wmbg [Williamsburg]."

Little can be said of industry and trade in Fairfax County during the 1750s. Not only is information scarce, but also there was little industry to speak of. By 1759, John Ballendine had erected on the south side of the Occoquan, in Prince William County, an iron furnace, a forge, water grist mills, bolting mills, saw mills, and numerous buildings.[23] There is no record of such activity north of the Occoquan, and presumably Ballendine supplied both Colchester and Alexandria with finished lumber for construction. The town of Alexandria had a shipyard by 1759, although the extent of shipbuilding cannot be determined.[24]

On 28 June 1750, the court granted Edward Garret permission to build a mill on Beaver Dam Branch of Goose Creek. This is the earliest evidence of a water grist mill in Fairfax County. The same year Stephen Lewis petitioned to erect a mill on Difficult Run; the following year Lewis's case was still before the court with the additional petition of William Fairfax and Edward Masterson to erect mills on the same waterway. Similarly, Daniel Thomas petitioned for a mill on Popes Head Run in November 1753, and John Hough was given permission to build a mill in June 1755 on his land "in the Gap on Short Hills."

It was just about this time that Alexandria which had earlier made a great effort in regard to exporting wheat and flour, and had exhausted the supply of grain in the northern Virginia Tidewater and Piedmont began to divert wheat from the Shenandoah Valley to her merchants on the Potomac. Presumably, some of the Fairfax farmers, by 1760, were beginning to grow wheat instead of tobacco.[25]

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter in which you request information in regard to Mrs. Martha McGarry Popejoy, who was granted pension on account of the service of her husband, Edward Popejoy, in the War of 1812.

The data which follow were obtained from Claims papers for pension and bounty land on file under W. C. 5074, based upon the military service of Edward Popejoy in the War of 1812.

The date and place of birth of Edward Popejoy are not given, nor are the names of his parents shown.

Edward Popejoy volunteered in Middletown, Butler County, Ohio, April 27, 1812, served as private in Captain John Robison's company of Ohio militia, was taken prisoner, August 16, 1812, when General Hull surrendered to the British at Detroit, held until paroled September 20, 1812, and was discharged April 26, 1813.

He was allowed one hundred sixty acres of bounty land on his application executed November 20, 1850, at which time he was sixty-three years old, and a resident of Fayette County, Ohio.

Edward Popejoy married January 12 or 13, 1814, in Butler County, Ohio, Martha (Patsey) McCarey. The date and place of her birth, and names of parents are not given.

The soldier, Edward Popejoy, died July 9, 1854, in Jeffersonville, Fayette County, Ohio. It was stated, also, that he died July 10, 1864.

The widow, Martha Popejoy, was allowed pension on her application executed July 3, 1871, at which time she was seventy-six years old, and living in Fayette County, Ohio.

The papers on file in these claims contain no further discernible data relative to family.

In order to obtain the date of last payment of pension, name and address of person paid, and possibly the date of death of this widow, you should apply to The Comptroller General, General Accounting Office, Records Division, this city, and furnish the following data-

Martha Popejoy, widow of Edward Popejoy

SERVANTS TO FOREIGN PLANTATIONS FROM BRISTOL, ENGLAND, 1654-1686

Contributed by Gordon Ireland

On May 9, 1645, the Interregnum Parliament passed an ordinance for the punishment of "all such persons as shall steale, sell, buy, inveigle, purloyne, convey or receive any little Children, And for the strict and diligent search of all Ships and other Vessels on the River or at The Downes." However, it was not until Sept. 29, 1654, that, in the city of Bristol, which had then its own Admiralty jurisdiction and a monopoly of the Virginia trade, the Common Council passed an ordinance for the prevention of kidnapping; it provided that "all Boyes, Maides and other persons which for the future shall be transported beyond the Seas as servants shall before their going a shipboard have their Covenants or Indentures of service and apprenticeship inrolled in the Tolzey Books as other Indentures of apprenticeship are and have used to be."

Enrollment began on the following day, apparently by allotting separate spaces for this class of business in the rough entry books, by appointed clerks during each day's hours of attendance, and then sorting and faircopying the entries into big separate volumes of enrollment kept in the Chamberlain's office. Two volumes of Servants to Foreign Plantations with approximately 11,643 entries represent the fair copies under this system of enrollment; one from Sept. 30, 1654 to 1663, with 440 pages of entries (the folios, due to misnumbering, running to 545), and the second from 1663 to August 1679, with 319 pages (318 folios); also, about 500 further scattered entries, among the city apprenticeships, from Mar. 27, 1680 to June 12, 1686. With the waning of this type of emigration, after about thirty years, the entries gradually ceased.

The two transcribed volumes, bound in calf, were found at the back of an ancient wall press when the top floor of the Bristol Council House was rebuilt in 1925, and evidently had not been consulted for more than two centuries. In May 1940, they, with other records, were removed from the Council House to the Bomb Proof Record Rooms, a disused railway tunnel in the rocks of the Avon Gorge, which had been converted into a strong room fully equipped with electric lighting and heating and an air-conditioning plant. They remained there until 1946, when they were brought back to the Bristol Council House, none of them destroyed or damaged in any way. During a heavy raid on Bristol on the night of Dec. 6, 1940, the top floors of the Council House were destroyed by fire; however, the Council Chambers were saved, the archives and strong rooms were not damaged, and the staff remained at the Council House during the war. At the present time the building is temporarily repaired, and will be used until the city can gain permission to continue with the new Civic Buildings which were under construction when the war began.

The two volumes contain 2656 names for Barbados,* approximately 2560 for Nevis, 555 for other British West Indian islands, 4876 for Virginia, 163 for New England*, 177 for Maryland, New York and Pennsylvania in the present United States, and 770 without named destination. The servants' names, destinations, vessels where stated, and pages of the record have been published, with expert introductions throwing most interesting lights on the whole story, in Bristol and America (R. Sydney Glover, London, 1929.) The system of copying from the original journal entries into the classified volumes may account for some apparent duplications which appear in the lists. Some of the earlier entries give brief particulars of the apprenticeship agreement and later sometimes the servant's prior residence, the name of the ship and of the ship's master; but as business increased the entries become much shorter and often show, besides the servant's name and destination, only the date of the entry and the name of the bondmaster. These emigrants were of all sorts and conditions: a few pardoned criminals, some political prisoners, some children and apprentices who had been kidnapped and sold, but the majority were respectable and industrious men and women; they, chiefly for transportation charges, bound themselves for a fixed term, usually under five years, and they expected to become freeholders, commonly of fifty acres of land, each, at the end of their period of service.

To make the material of the present compilation as useful as possible to historians, genealogists, and others interested, it is given alphabetically in four classifications: (I) by names of the emigrants, showing to some extent possible family groups; (II) by names of the bondmasters, showing servants under the same man; (III) by vessels and captains, showing servants on the same voyage, where known; and (IV) by places from which the emigrants came, showing the comparatively few known cases of same origin.

TABLE I: EMIGRANTS

Destination, Maryland

As contributed, this List contained the names of the respective bondmasters, and, in all cases in which the original entries give the information, the names of the vessels and captains and (mostly for 1684 and 1685) the places from which the emigrants came; but to meet the size of our pages these three columns have been omitted from Table I.

Mary R. M. Nunneley
1550 South Dewey
Bartlesville, Ok. 74003

Dear Mary,

I thought that I had written you, but cannot find the letter and I don't believe I mailed it - so.

Ted Sloane sent me your address. First some coincedences:

I had an uncle Ira Wilson who died 1958 in Pittsburg, Kansas. He was the head of the English Dept. at Pittsburg State College. I only mentioned this because I noticed that your great grandfather, William Mitchem died there in 1898.

Your mother, Mabel, was md in Iola, Kansas- my mother Iola, b. 1910 Wash. was named after the town Iola in Kansas.

I am writing in regards to Edward POPEJOY, son of Terrance Popejoy. Edward's cousin, William (=Nancy Wiley) was my 2nd great grandfather.

Jack Popejoy (C. L.) has put together a book called "Here, There, and Everywhere" which contains our lines now. His 1st book was an accumulation of letters with conflicting data.

At the moment, I am working in Livingston Co., Ill on Edward's brother, William and cousin, Nathaniel Popejoy.

I do have a question: Was Edward and Martha in Brown co. Ohio and listed on the 1840 census of said County? Since they are both buried in Fayette Co., Ohio and I don't have census record for them 1840 and 60. (In 1860 he was in Iowa). I don't have the 1860 record, but am obtaining it (I hope) from another correspondent.

Also since I do not know when your data was put in The Ohio Connection, it may well be that you have correction of what was printed - such as: John Conner's birth - do you have proof of it being 20 Oct.1816?
Alvina 20? instead of 19th
1921 instead of 1922
According to cem. records: John Conner d. Sept. 8, 1868

The data I received is probably wrong since you have done research on it.

Was James Conner a son of John & Mary? and Elsie a dau. of Charles and Rebecca?

Would like to exchange data with you.

Sincerely yours,

Shirley Hunt

Dear Mary,

I am truly sorry to hear about your mother, I hope that things may be looking upward for you.

I had to write the publishers for my Popejoy books - seems as though they had sent the books, but were lost in the mail - so they sent some more, which I have received.

I was going to write sooner, but the books are so full of errors that I was very steamed up - in fact, I think everyonê could hear me for miles around!

For instance: I do know that most of Naomi's data was only put tobether as she saw them - item: the Mathis, Mathew family p. 23. I gave her this data from the King book, but it does not diffintely state relationship to the Popejoy. She is just assuming because of her Nathaniel (son of Edward Sr.) who married Priscilla Mathis & locations. She could be right - but no proof to back her up.

Also on p. 22 - again assumption: that the Nancy Popejoy mentioned in Fauquier Co. Va. was Nancy Mathis, daughter of Robert Mathis. While Robert did have a dau. Nancy - no proof of marriage or she was the one who married William Popejoy, supposedly son of William, son of Nat'l & Eliz.

Now then, perhaps Billie Fritz may have obtained further proof - should drop her line & see. She did try to obtain proof wherever possible, but Naomi more or less put together assumptions & theories because she wanted to finish her line as age was catching up with her. Don't get me wrong! I think she did alot of thinking, but all of it should have been regarded as such & not taken or assumed to be correct.

Another item: p. 26: concerning the early girl Popejoys, Lydia & Sarah. This was my thinking and not Billie or Naomi's AND I so stated to Jack that this was only speculation & theory even when he sent me the rough draft I again stated such. In the meantime, I have other possibilities for Sarah.

p. 11 "It was customary in those days, when the wife and mother died, the younger children stayed with the father . . . . . speculation that the children's mother was Nathaniel's 2nd wife, Ann - SINCE no-one is sure if he married twice or not.

Nathaniel = Elizabeth Ann Dulin or 1 & the same
= Ann

One error really stands out: concerning the Popejoy boys found in the 1820-30 census of Knox Co., Ky.

MILLERS FALLS
EZERASE

p. 21 a copy enclosed for you

p. 20 listed as sons of William^4

p. 27 listed as sons of Nat'l Jr.^{4} (speculation & was stated as such) also, I don't believe this Nat'l ever went to Ross Co. O. after 1790 Terrance & John did.

p. 31 listed as sons of Thomas^5 (son/Ed.)
(also Thomas = Polly mentioned in census - this came about by me mentioning to Naomi that Thomas may have been Thomas Edward even though he had a brother, Edward.)

* I would assume from the way they are listed on census, that Will was a son of Edward & Polly.

I can see that there will be alot of follow up, but it seems that book 3 will need to be written to correct the many, many errors. There is so much speculation and not fact!

Enoughs enough for now.

Ted Sloane - I and others agree. I finally gave up. I called as requested, but could never reach him - home or office. And when he did send a little, there was an error & I never could get him to respond. However, he did send me your name - no note.

Walter Popejoy in Pa. is another one who doesn't give out data, but will take. He is writing a book on the historical side including the Popejoys (time, cultural, living customs, etc.). Most likely his book will be just a family book.

* Most of the Popejoy data has been handed down from Eva Appelquist (dec'd) & I believe that a touch of her data can be found in most Popejoy researcher's files.

Unless Walter Popejoy has proof - I really have not heard of nor found anyone who has found proof for Edward's children: John's children (and I an related through this line). This information came from Eva Appelquist, but how did she find it to be so, or was it speculation because of localities???

Thank you for the census records. I had some, but always meant to order the later ones.

46-46 John Popejoys son of Wm. & Nancy (Wiley) Popejoy
Nancy (Morris) (prob. d/o John & Eliz. (Tway) Morris / = April 15, 1825 Fayette Co., O.

Nathaniel McCandless 35 = Sarah Jane Popejoy (d/o John & Nancy I presume)

Sarah Jane Popejoy = Nathaniel McCandless February 10, 1842 Fayette County, Ohio. B:193 probate Court Marriages.

The Inquirer for Valentine's Day mentioned 3 couples marrying their childhood sweetheart after so many years. One of the couples was Virgil Popejoy. I wrote to an address that I had, hoping that it might be the one - AND it was. He is related through the "woodscolt" Popejoy as we term it. (Harriet Sowards had a son by either Terrance (=Eliz. Ann (Nancy) Champ) or John (=Mary Ann Champ) Harriet later married George Harness. Walter Popejoy in Pa. also related through this line, seems to lean heavily towards John.

The Virgil Popejoy that I wrote to mentioned another Virgil in Des Moines, Iowa - so will write & see what happens.

I had sent the family (quite abit of data) concerning William, but was included. Concerned his children.

Dec. 8, 1982

Dear Mary,

By now you must have received my 2nd letter & thought what a nut! Sorry, I really couldn't recall mailing the letter. Around our house, anything goes what with school, our grandson, dogs & a cat, and then the storm leaving lights out for several days. Had a nice vacation though-ha! (couldn't have school because of lights, but the days will be made up.

If you have been in contact with "Jack" (C. L. Popejoy) then you must have been given a copy or a mention of a disposition showing heirs of John Champ wherein mention is made of Elizabeth's children. If not, I'm sending an extra copy that I have. I thought that I had a better copy- will look later.

See p4 → Mrs. Appelquist the Popejoy originator of material stated in a 1944 letter "Elizabeth Ann Champe Popejoy was living 1814 dead by 1820, Concord twshp Ross Co. By 1825 Terrence had a second wife, Nancy _______ and was living with his niece, Elizabeth Popejoy Rankin, near Bloomingburg. Elizabeth buried them both on her lot. We don't know why his children didn't welcome him (and Nancy) unless they resented the step-mother. I did not locate grave of Eliz. Ann Champe but am of the opinion that she is buried on the farm of her daughter Frances (Frankie) who = Nicholas Devault (Concord twshp-Ross Co.)."

see est [illegible] In letter of 1949 she states: " Terrence md *@1782 Eliz. Ann Champe linving in Paint Tshp. 1825. He and 2nd wife, Nancy buried Bloomington cem. on Rankin lot. no issued by 2nd w.
Elizabeth's issue as learned from depositions taken to settle estate of Elizabeth's father in Virginia:

John = Elizabeth Thompson
Nancy = Thomas Devault
Frances = Nicholas Devault
Edward = 1814 Martha McGarry of Butler Co. Lived longest in Jefferson tshp, but farmed in Paint for a time. Both buried Higby cem. across the road from his daughter's farm, where they lived their last years.
William = Mary Thompson
    Mary Ellen Flesher **
Susannah = Henry Flesher
Mary = Joseph Sweet

_______ 6

These letters were found in Ohio by a genealogist doing research for Berverly Sheppherd (her husband is related to Christopher Ed. Popejoy, son of John, brother of Terrenace.)

* couldn't have = @1782 because census show 5 in 1784 (unless some Champes lived with him). (or 2 died yng.)

This is also an error - Mary Ellen Flesher was William's niece, but he did not marry her. He md 2nd Rebecca Hannaman. The William that married Mary Ellen was a son of Nathaniel Popejoy.

In 1835, the Will of George Groves was presented to court by George Benson, Edward Popejoy & Mathias Benson. George Groves may have been Mathias grandfather???

Noticing Ted Sloane's charts to you: He has William C. Popejoy son of Ed. b. 1823 & the 1850------Co.
= Matilda b. 1832 (where did he obtain this data???)

1850 census shows William Popejoy b. (1817) & wife
Elicabeth (b. 1820).

In looking over your charts, I see gaps to be filled out concerning the Popejoys. However, possibly with Jack's (C. L. Popejoy) book, the data will help. I haven't done much depth search for Edward, but willing to share what I do have.

Ted Sloane doesn't have up to date information.

As for your Edward Popejoy being Terrence's son. Even though the disposition only mentions Elizabeth Champe Popejoy -

1815 Tax List of Giles Co., Va. p. 18

"Giles Deed Bk 1, Pg. 432 William & Elizabeth Champ of Green County, Ohio; Tarrance & Ann (Champ) Popejoy of Fayette County, Ohio; James & Fanny (Champ) Sheppard of Ross County, Ohio; George & Jane Champ of Botetourt County, Virginia (heirs of John Champ) to Christopher Champ--both side Johns Creek, a branch of Craigs Creek. 1815."

(I have some other documents)

The only other* Edward Popejoy was Christopher Edward, son of John, brother of Terrance, & he went to Wells Co., Ind.

*only other in Fayette & around. The other Edward Popejoys belong to our other line (C. L. Popejoy's side). (And they were in Penn., Ky. & Tenn.)

So far from what I've been able to glean, Edward, William & sister, Susannah (children of Terrance) were very close to cousins, Nathaniel, John, Elizabeth & William. (children of John).

* From page 1 of this letter, it does seem odd that Terrance had so much to do with his niece, Elizabeth Popejoy & husband, William Rankin Jr., but most of Terry's children had left the state except for Edward and he had several children whereas Eliz. had only 1(only 1 known to me).

Now then, Terrence is said to have married twice:

1st Elizabeth Ann Champe
2nd Nancy ______ (I question this)

Documents shows:

1 Giles Co. Va. A:150 7 November 1814, granting Christopher Champ Power of Attorney for John Champ's heirs. In it (listed among the others) is Tarrance Popejoy and wife, Ann Champ in the text but the signature is Nancy her mark. The addition at the bottom of the document, witnessed in Ross Co. also says Nancy.

2. Giles Co. Va. Deed A:432 - heirs of John Champ to Christopher Champ on 24 Jan, 1815 with Terrance' wife as Ann Champ.

3. 1820 doc: heirs of John Champ and children of Elizabeth (Champ) Popejoy, dau. of John.

4. Giles Co. Deed B:152 on 7 Sept. 1824 showing Christopher Champ acting as Power of Attorney for all the heirs and himself, selling the same land (of A:432) he bought from the heirs to Guy D. French; on this 1824 deed Tarrance' wife is again Ann.

5. Fayette Co. Deed D:295 on 24 Feb. 1825 from Tarrance to Wm. Rankin, it mentions Rankin maintaining Terrance and his wife, Nancy.

(have copies if you wish them)

Thus: 1814 Ann Nancy
1815 Ann
1820 Elizabeth
1824 Ann
1825 Nancy

Since Nan & Nancy are diminutives* for Ann/Anna - I therefore believe that Terrance married Elizabeth Ann (Nancy)

*according to my Webster dictionary

Everyone believes that Eliz. Ann (Nancy) died ante 1820 because that is what Eva Applequist thought. It seems that everyone took her word without any follow up. She evidently was the only one interested in the name of Popejoy when she was alive.

So that would make Terrance & Elizabeth Ann (Nancy) both buried on the Rankin lot of niece, Elizabeth Popejoy Rankin, dau. of John, brother of Terrance.

Also to back me up: Terrance named a daughter Nancy (= Thomas DeVault). I couldn't understand why Nancy since the name didn't fit anywhere - now it does.

As for Terrance & wife living with niece, Eliz. it would be the logical thing to do since most of their children and grandchildren had moved from the area and the fact that Eliz. and husband, Wm. ran a boarding home.

I think it is time to quit - I know that I have probably confused you. I'm looking forward to Jack's book - yes,, I'm also sure there will be errors since so many Popejoys could not agree, especially concerning the early Popejoys, & I am no different, I am still puzzling over some of it.

I also promise that next time you hear from me, my typewriter ribbon will be new.

Bye for now,

Shirley

INDEX TO VOLUMES OF GRAVE LOCATIONS

SERVICEMEN OF THE WAR OF 1812

STATE OF OHIO

Compiled 1969

The separate volumes of records from which the index is compiled, bear dates from 1948 through 1969 at 2 or 3 year intervals, indicating the year in which bound. These books contain approximately two thousand names of those giving military or civilian service during the War of 1812 - and who are either buried in Ohio or are ancestors of Ohio members of the United States Daughters of 1812.

The index is divided not only alphabetically but by the time of binding, thus - under A, etc. will be found the names of those filed in the respective bound volume. The synopsis of data gives name, rank, dates of birth and death, name and location of burial place (when available) wife's name (if stated), and where proof of service may be found.

In many instances the records indexed list not only children of subject (with birth, death and marriage dates) but give similar information for succeeding generations. This information can be most helpful to those wishing to establish proof of eligibility for membership in the United States Daughters of 1812 and other patriotic organizations, and for those interested in genealogy.

The indexed volumes have been placed in the Reference Department of the State Library of Ohio, 65 South Front Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215. They are available for personal research or if a copy of the information is desired - refer to index by year and page number and duplicates can be sent for a small charge. (Same name may appear in more than one year, as additional information is obtained. If so list all given and the most complete will be sent.) The volumes referred to in the previous index compiled in 1945 are also on file at the State Library of Ohio.

Abbreviations have been used, most of which are obvious. O.R. refers to Ohio Roster Soldiers of 1812. Adj. Gen. refers to Adjutant General, State of Ohio unless otherwise specified. Names of counties and states have been abbreviated when not confusing. (Ash., or Asht.- Ashtabula; Cler. - Clermont; Mont. - Montgomery; etc.)

Data from W.P.A. Records is indicated by WPA Rcds. These records may be found in the office of the County Recorder in each county seat in the State of Ohio, while the master index is in the Office of the Adj. Gen., Columbus, Ohio.

An asterisk indicates that the name was reported also in the 1945 edition of the Grave Location Index.

Dear Mary,

Many thanks for your long and good letter of 22 November.

Your remarks re the "Heir" are no doubt responsible and deserved. One thing I remember, at the "Champe Reunion" in Aldie, Virginia in 1980, was the strong personalities of all the "cousins".

Once we've "organized and proved" the lines to our probable Popejoy and Champe immigrant, we ought to have another Reunion!

You're quite right "Hardly Possible" re John Champe (Spy) as father of Elizabeth who married Terrence Popejoy. But, I'm sure we have a Bro-Sis relationship...and that is what we need to prove and then their parentage. (Hence, John is a Bro-in-law to Terrence Popejoy.)

The problem with Will Book A, Loudon County, Virginia, is that it is too convenient geographically, and hence everyone jumps to the conclusion this must be John's (the Spy) father. He could be you understand, but...let's prove it 1st.

From conversations (at Aldie 1980) and correspondence since and before, I would guess I've done more research (on the spot) in the Virginia counties than others,....and now with the approaching trip, I believe we can provide some additional clarifications.

You should understand, that some of the folks at Aldie were upset when I arrived, having driven from Hardy County that morning with proof of the entirety of of John's (the Spy) Family. It meant, of course, that some were not connected to John "the Celebrity" and this is not what 'some' wanted to hear. On the whole we had a great time and the various 'cousins' were really great.

Will let you know re the findings of our 1984 search in February.

Again thanks for the data and Happy Holidays to you and yours.

Best regards,

Ted

A Copy Test, EDWIN NELSON,
Clerk County Court, Prince William County, Va.

This register includes the names of persons who, in the election of Burgesses, in 1741, polled 828 votes for the candidates indicated. Many of the voters' names are repetitions, several candidates having received the votes of the same person. The territory covered the limits of the present county of Prince William, together with that now included within the counties of Fairfax, Loudoun, and Fauquier. In other words, it extended along the Potomac to the Blue Ridge.

FAIRFAX COUNTY, VIRGINIA.

THE POLL LIST FOR THE ELECTION OF BURGESSES FOR FAIRFAX COUNTY IN THE YEAR 1744.

This county was entitled to two members in the House of Burgesses. The names of the candidates were Col. John Colville, Capt. Lawrence Washington, Capt. Lewis Ellzey, and John Sturman. Two candidates only were to be voted for by the same person. The names of the voters are recorded under the names of the candidates for whom they voted.

Fairfax county was formed in 1742 from Prince William. At the date of this poll, in 1744, it still included what is now Loudoun county. The latter, however, was detached in 1757. The voters whose names are given in the foregoing list were included, therefore, in the inhabitants then living within what are now Fairfax and Loudoun counties.*

* It may be of interest to note the fact that in the year 1769 the House of Burgesses of Virginia passed an act concerning the manner in which members of this body should be elected. Section 7 of said act provides as follows: "And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, That after publication of such writs, and at the day and place of election, every freeholder actually resident within his county shall personally appear, and give his vote, upon penalty of forfeiting two hundred pounds of tobacco to any person or persons who will inform or sue for the same, recoverable, with costs, by action of debt or information, in any court of this dominion." Hening's Statutes, vol. 8, page 308.

Dear Mary,

Cousin? I think, Recieved your Package. Thank you! Ive read & re read several times. Your information gave me new names, also took me back several more generations.

I had decided Edward Papefay was Fannys father and had some census & Circuit Court records etc, but hearing from you Verifies my thoughts.

1850 Census she is living in the home of Mathias
Fint Elizabeth J. 19
James 6 mo.

1. On the family group sheet you sent, on Edward & Martha Papefay #7 Elizabeth J. was the daughter of Mathias & Fanny! Papefay She married Daniel M Fint 3 oct 1848 and was born 1831 Fayette Co. ohio

2. Allan C Papefay born 16 nov 1833 married Ellen Jane dau of George & Rebecca.
Allan was son of (William Papefay?) I don't Know!! how was he a 2nd Cousin to Ellen Jane?
Ellen Jane married 1st to David Trent.

This might be it?

3. Sarah Benson, (sister of George) Married a William Wiley in Va. ~~[illegible]~~ William Papefay Cousin of Edward Papefay married Nancy Wiley who were her parents? the Wm & Sarah Wiley?

4. In the Listing of Soldiers of War of 1812 George Benson is really mixed up. It does help Verify one fact however — Geo & Rebecca were in Fayette Co. Ohio by 1812.

But it has Wm Creighton Benson married to Bethena Griffith This is not So!!!

Wm Creighton # 7 Child of Geo & Rebecca Benson was my G.G. Grandfather & he was Married ① Eliza Ann Farmer dau of William Farmer.

② Sussan Clarke.

I have both Marraige Certif.

The Wm Creighton Benson who married Berthena Griffith was son of Mathias Benson & his 2nd wife Mary Fent.

Have you ~~fear~~ searched the Champe Family? What did you hear from Ted Sloane after his trip in ? How does a Spy enter in? Thats a story I've not heard.

How about the family of Elizabeth Dulin ? (wife of Nathaniel Papefay) And Elizabet Ann Smith wife of William Dulin ??

We are going to Mo. for thanks giving to be with my sister & family. We have finally retired & plan to travel. High priority on my list is a trip to ohio to do more research & visit Cousin I have like yourself — Hope to see you then, but I dont know when. Love Jane

Sept 2, 1987

Dear Mary,

Thank you for your letter. I had the Census records, but not the Marraige dates. I'm sending you what I know about the Binsons.

Mathias and Fanny (Papejay) Binson were my Great Great Grand parents.

Yes indeed the 1870 Census makes one Wonder. I thought perhaps Berthina was a sister to Mary Fint. She would have been born 1845 though & be a daughter between Creighton & James.

The only Child of Mathias and Fanny that I know of is George #4.

I would greatly appreciate family Group sheets on the Papejay family

Edward & Martha (Mc Gary) Papejay. Their parents & as far back as you have. Also any thing you know about their life in Ohio & where they came from.

I've traced the Binsons back to 1634 when they were in Barbadoes, before coming to Somerset Co Md. and from there to Virginia and George and his family to Fayette Co Ohio. (one of whom was Mathias)

My Great Grandparents were Cousins. being the Children of Mathias & his brother Williams Creighton Binson.

Thank you again for your letter and please let me hear from you.

over

I had found several Tapejays in Fayette Co Ohio & by chance had chosen Edward to be the father of Fanny!

I found Edward; John & William — in 1850 Census. Edward born in Ky. Is that correct? I found Edward in 1820 - 30 & 40.

Sincerly
Jane Hester

Dear Mary;

I'm sure I wrote and ask for your family group Sheets on Popejoy.

You will remember, I am a decendant of Mathias Benson - married Fannie Popejoy.

I would appreciate information on the parents & grandparents of Fannie Popejoy

And any thing you have about Martha McGary and her ancestors. Do you know any other bit of interest about Fanny & Mathias? Any phots' etc of any of them?

Please take time to write

Thank you

Dear Jane,

Sorry for the long delay in answering your letter of 2 September concerning the Popejoy family. I work at the Bartlesville Public Library and we have, in September, started our Winter hours. This means I must work every other Saturday. I forget each year just how far behind I get during the long hours required to stay open for the school students.

When I sent the Benson marriages, only to help another Fayette County, Ohio, genealogist, little did I realize that I would find a "cousin". It appears that we descend from Edward Popejoy and Martha McGarey (McGary) in the same manner. I descend from Alvina Popejoy who married John Conner and you descend from Alvina's sister, Fanny who married Mathias Benson.

I am sending what little I have on the Popejoy family. Some of it has been taken from the Popejoy Family written by C. L. "Jack" Popejoy. He has done two volumes and there seems to be many errors in his works. It does give some areas for further research, but he lists few proofs and apparently did not check any contributor material. I have both volumes and think they are still available from the Gregrath Company in Alabama.
Hope some of the items enclosed are of help to you. I would appreciate your comments and any additional material you might have to correct anything I have sent.

Hope to hear from you after you have had time to read over the material.

Thanks for the items you sent and will send anything else I come across, and

Sincerely,

Mary

Mrs. Mary Nunneley:

Sure appreciate your prompt reply to my letter. When "Jack" Popejoy sent me your address he referred to you as being a descendent of Edward Popejoy and I thought it would be the Edward Popejoy I am searching. The Edward Popejoy that I need is probably a brother or half brother to Tarrence. This Edward Popejoy was in the census of Fairfax and later Pittsylvania County, Virginia. A son, Nathaniel Popejoy married a Priscilla Mathis in 1803 there, then went to Grainger County, Tenn. His son William Walton Popejoy was my great grandfather.

Mrs. Shirley Hunt has lots of research on the early Popejoys and has sent me some copies. I have had some of the copies reduced in size and would be glad to "Loan" you the copies I have had made. But first why don't you write Mrs. Hunt, she is researching the John Popejoy brother to Tarrence and she can probably give you the name of Tarrence's wife. You might tell her that I can send you copies of what she had sent me.

Mrs. Shirley Hunt
15196 W. Lynn Dr.
Elsimore, Calif. 92330

I am sure that she has sent most of her information to "Jack".

Maybe with enough people searching, we can get the whole line together.

Please let me hear from you again.

Dear Mary,

I am writing about your ad in the genealogical helper. My Hensley line is one of my favorite lines. I do not think that the J.J. that you are looking for and the J.J. in my line are the same person but it's very possible that they are related.

This is my J.J. -

Julian Jackson Hensley born - 10 Nov 1853
Morgan Co., Indiana
m. 29 Jun 1879
to Sylvia Thompson in Cherokee, Iowa
d. 18 May 1923
in Potlatch, Idaho buried in Palouse, Washington

his parents - Charles Clark Hensley
& Eliza Ann Greenwood

his brothers and sisters -
Travis Franklin Hensley
Charles Butler Hensley
Josephine Juraldine Hensley O'Hare
Eugenia Elizabeth Hensley
Missouri Ann Hensley O'Hare Rase

I don't know any of his neices or nephews but I would guess that your J.J. would be my J.J.'s nephew.

I'm enclosing a SASE so you can let me know if we are related. I've got a lot of Hensley information so even if we aren't related, I might still have something that will help you.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Darlene

Dear Darlene,

Thank you for replying to my recent query in the Helper concerning J. J. Hensley.

I know absolutely nothing about J. J. Hensley, except, his great-grandmother, Martha McGarey Popejoy (wife of Edward, War of 1812 from Ohio) is my great-great-great-grandmother. Mr. Hensley was doing research on the McGarey family in 1939 and when I ordered my great-great-great grandfather's War of 1812 records from the National Archives, copies of Mr. Hensley's correspondence (two letters) were Xeroxed and included in my request. The war records contained 26 pages, but little of genealogical value. Mr. Hensley had written to the Archives to try to obtain information concerning John McGarry, father of Martha (this did extend me back one more generation).

My Hensley is as follows:and with no direct connection:

Edward M. Popejoy, 1786-1864
m. Martha Patsey McGarey, 1795-1875 (married 13 Jan 1814, Butler Co., Ohio)

Issue:
William, 1814
Fanny (?) Mary, 1816 married Mahtias Benson
Margaret, ca 1819 married a Mr. Solomon

Alvina Popejoy, 1821-1867....
m. John Conner, ...THIS IS MY LINE AND WELL DOCUMENTED

John Isaac, ca 1824 married Frances S. Pearson

Martha J. Popejoy, ca 1827 - bef 1870 (court records of Fayette Co., Ohio)
m. John HENSLEY, 1823- , Martha and John were married 5 Sept 1844, Fayette Co., Ohio

1850 census - Fayette Co., Ohio 99-99

John J. Hensley	21 (?) -	male	farming	Ohio
Martha	22	female		Ohio
Leroy	3	male		Ohio
William	1	male		Ohio
Jacob Gray	17	male		Ohio
Michael Gray	23	male		Ohio

In Feb 1870 , in Common Pleas Court, Fayette Co., Ohio, my great-great-grandmother Alvine Popejoy Conner sued her brother, John, mother Martha McGarey Popejoy and the children of her deceased sister, Martha Hensley. The following children of John J. Hensley and Martha Popejoy are listed and it is stated in the court record "Henleys (Hensleys) all of Iowa City, Iowa.([illegible]her suit that month named the Henleys (sic) of Iowa City and Margaret Solomon of Green County, Kansas (no such county) -

Issue of John J. Hensley and Martha Popejoy Hensley (per court records):

February 1870 – Martha Henlyy one third. Martha now deceased, leaving,

Leroy M. age 23
Wm. E. age 20
Morgan age 18
Frank M. age 9
John I. age 7
Charles 3-1/2
Mary A. age 16
Medora aged 14
Fanny M. age 12
Flora I. age 2 yrs

The Henleys all of Iowa City, Iowa – and I have not done any further census checking on the group in that area

The J. J. Hensley of Seattle, WA in 1939 that I seek was a son of one of the above listed sons of John J. Hensley and Martha Popejoy Hensley as he stated in the letter "he was a great-grandson of Martha McGarey Popejoy". The above listed Hensley's would be grandchildren.

Interesting that they were all from Iowa, but have such little information as to have no idea if there would be a connection.

I primarily published the query in hopes that someone would be able to find J. J. Hensley or tell me if any of his work on his family had been published. His letter took my back one generation and had hopes his work could be purchased for further information.

I really appreciate your interest in answering and only wish I had a big amount of Hensley news to send since it is one of your favorite lines. If I hear from anyone else concerning this name, will surely send it to add to your Hensley files.

Thanks again –

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Ted,

Surprised to hear...yes! and genealogy and grandchildren do take a lot of our time. We have only one grandchild, Mr. Bradley Michael Nunneley, age three – quite an outstanding child (as his grandmother, I have observed this).

During the time since my last letter, my mother, Mabel Mitchem Metzinger, died on 19 Feb 1983 of cancer. She was my devoted fan concerning the family genealogical research on her Popejoy and Conner families. I am very happy that her health was still such that she enjoyed my acceptance into Daughters of the American Revolution on her ancestor, Charles Rose of NJ (to Monongalia Co., W VA). No one had proven his service before, so she was thrilled I was the first to do such.

Your trip to Virginia in Jan/Feb, 1984 sounds interesting and hopefully, you will be able to straighten out this John L. Champe information. I see no way that Sergeant Major John L. Champe of Revolutionary War fame could be the father of Elizabeth Ann Champe who married Tarrence Popejoy, as reported by everyone who does Popejoy research. John Champe and Tarrence Popejoy were contemporaries. Elizabeth Ann Champe Popejoy could certainly have been a sister to John L. Champe, but not his daughter. See some sources as follows:

 DAR membership papers of Juanita Neely Herring (Lima Ohio) 14 Dec 1966

John L. Champe 1752-1798
m. Phebe Barnard 1758-aft 1838 (Franklin Co. Ohio) on July 1782 Loudon Co.

issue:	Eleanor	m. Jacob Hartman
	Amelia	m. William Keys
	William	m. M. Mathing
	Mary	m. Samuel Keys
	Susannah	m. David Wilfong
	Nathaniel (b 1793)	m. Almenia Thomas
	John L. (b 1791)	m. Mary Brentlinger

 West Virginians in the American Revolution (Ross B. Johnston, compiler) pgs 50-51

John Champe, Sergeant Major from Louden County, VA. Died near Morgantown, Monongalia Co. VA. Pension request by wife Phebe rejected, Jan 1819, Franklin Co. Ohio. Second pension request granted, 25 July 1838. 400 acres bounty land issued to heirs, 31 July 1835.

Issue: Same as above, but lists the following children of Ohio: William, Mary and John Champs, living in Ohio. Nathaniel Champe was living in Ohio.

 Now and long ago; a history of the Marion County area (Glenn D. Lough, 1969) pgs 507-510

John Champe died of a heart attack in Monongalia Co (now Marion Co.) in 1798, in Paw Paw Dist., on Tamey's Run, a short distance above present Granttown. He and his wife and children were temporary residents of Pricketts Fort. His body was taken to Prickett's settlement and buried there.

> Richard Prickett (1777-1867) brought Champe's body to the settlement on his horse and helped dig his grave...It was J. J. Prickett's (son of Richard) understanding that Champe's wife and children went on to Ohio.
> ...there was a connection between the John Champe family and the Marion County Wilfongs; and it is true, John Champe's daughter, Susannah, married Daniel Wilfong, and lived in Ohio. (from Adam Heck's papers)

Champe, John: b 1752; d 1798 m. Phebe Barnard, SgtMaj Spy-VA

I have absolutely no information concerning the Elizabeth Ann Champe who married Tarrence (Terrence) Popejoy except from Jack's book which states that she died ca 1817 in Ross Co., Ohio. If her father was John L. Champe, Sgt Maj, we have really set a new record! My Edward Popejoy was born in 1786 and his father and grandfather would both have been about 34 years of age at his birth. I would rather wonder if the following will might provide some thought:

Will Book A - Loudoun Co., VA

John Champe of Loudoun County, parish of Truro
Dated: 30 July 1763
Proved: 8 Nov 1763 by oaths of Thomas Hogan and George Leech
Grandson: John Champe
Daughters: Susy (name not plain)Champe - cow, calf, etc.; Ann Champe; Elizabeth Jones
Son: Thomas Champe
Executors: Sons John Champe and Thomas Champe
Witness: Thomas Hogan, George Leech

John & Thomas Champe refused to execute. Henry Peyton, Gent. appointed administrator.

The above will from DAR Magazine, August 1948. And now my question - have researchers combined the names of the daughters of this John Champe, Ann and Elizabeth, to become the "Elizabeth Ann Champe" who married Terrence Popejoy. I suspect Loudoun County and all parent counties should be checked. Truro Parish has also, been listed in Fairfax Co at one time. Champes and Popejoys are both from these counties.

I have rambled on a bit with no results, just thoughts. To save some time, I am sending a copy of this letter to a recent correspondent, Mrs. Robert P. Brinkman, 5740 Bloomfield Glens, West Bloomfield, MI 48033. She is a descendent of Susanna Popejoy married Henry Flesher II.

Would like your thoughts on the odd chance that Sgt Maj John Champe could be the father-in-law of Terrance Popejoy...

Hope your holidays are good and your trip interesting!

Mary

Dear Mary,

Surprise!...1st, I hope the past year has been good to your family healthwise. 2nd, I apologize for the long interval for reply to yours of 19 October 1982.

We've been busy, with a new computor, completing two Genealogies for clients, Speakers at Genealogical conference, Golf, Sailing,....and our new grandchild is something else!

In reviewing your letter-

My Devault Line:

Ted ^{7} Sloane, Grace ^{6} Stoltz, Maude ^{5} Aue, Anne P.^{4} , Jasper J.^{3} Devault, (Nicholas ^{2})
(Nicholas ^{1})

Frances ^{2} , Terrance ^{1} Popejoy

Your questions -

1st par - I don't have enough data in Family Sheet form, but if you still want me to search I'll do so.

2nd par - Could be Greene County, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois or Missorui. There is a Greenwood County, Kansas./✓'d 1880 Soundexes and/or 1900 Soundex??

3rd par - No, I do not have Edward Popejoy's 1812 service or Will papers, would appreciate copies. If you can't make copies easily, send and I'll return.

4th par - Enjoyed Jack on the phone, and am sorry he has been quite ill, perhaps he has died by now,....haven't heard.

Yes, his proof and much proof offered by others is scanty and sometimes faulty. Beware of Max Keiffer (Texas) also.

Further patience, until I can return to Virginia. We are planning a trip (4 weeks) January-February 1984, and it should produce more solid evidence re these Popejoys, Devaults and Champes. We will do 12 + Shenandoah Valley Counties, and several "Northern Neck" Counties in Virginia.

My daughter who lives in Columbia, South Carolina is due, her 1st child, in January so we've planned to be "in the area" searching, and when called in Virginia, go to South Carolina.

We should also clean out the Hensleys in Iowa City, Iowa.

Well....a short reply, but will get back to you after trip east in 1984.

Happy Holidays and a healthy New Year.

Ted —

Dear Jack:

I am enclosing Xerox copies from the Boogher book, Gleanings of Virginia History, which has a voting record of Fairfax County, Virginia, which includes the name of one, Nathaniel Popejoy, who voted in the election of burgesses in the year, 1744.

I am quite sure that it will be included in the new Popejoy book, but thought I would send it along anyhow, just in case it is an earlier date than the current Popejoy book.

I would like an update concerning the new book when you have time and want you to be sure to include me on the mailing list when it is published.

My sister, Nancy Anne Metzinger Phillips passed away on 2 June 1982, cancer, at age 45. We are still saddened more to learn that my mother, Mabel Mitchem Metzinger (our Popejoy line) also, has cancer, inoperable. We were told two weeks ago. She is being the brave one and making we children and Dad continue our usual work and lives. The doctors expect her time to be short and are unable to do anything, even cobalt or chemotherapy.

Hope all is well with you.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Jack -

Received my book and am thrilled! It is ever so much more than I expected. So much work has gone into the book and we must thank you for the idea and finally for the birth of a Popejoy genealogy in print.

Due to family illiness, my sister in Tulsa has been hospitalized and finally surgery recently, I have truly not had time to absorb everything in the book, but will go over it as soon as possible.

I have written for the marriage license of Edward Popejoy and Martha McGarey in Butler County, Ohio and have received a copy of his will. Do you want copies of such records as they are received? If you do (and I sincerely hope so) publish another Popejoy book, such proofs listed would surely be of interest to those who are researching the Popejoy families.

I am getting ready to have a researcher do some work for me in Fayette County, Ohio and try to abstract all Popejoy information in that county from the earliest listed to date. It may be more thank she is interested in doing and again, maybe more thank I care to undertake at the present.

I am still a bit confused concerning my Popejoy lineage. I thought John Popejoy d. ca 1816 was the father of my Edward Popejoy in Fayette County, but since others have been researching so much longer thankI, it is necessary for me to get back to deeper "looking".

Again, thank you for sending the book so quickly to my working adress. It was delighftul to receive.

Hope to keep in touch and follow the current work on the new book.

Sincerely,

Mary

P.S. Would appreciate any addresses of those who you know are working on the same Popejoy line as I. We may be able to help each other and not duplicate work.

Dear Jack:

Was recently in Kansas for a short vacation and found the following marriages of Popejoy's in the listed publications at a small genealogy library in Salina:

NATHAN POPEJOY married MARY GREGORY in Butler County, Ohio, 2 May 1811 (see Popejoy Family...pages 124 and 125 - Mary Gregory must be first wife and not second as suggested). This marriage record listed in Gateway to the West - Ohio, Vol. 7, No. 2, Page 78 (April 1974)

POLLY POPEJOY married ISAAC CAHILL in Fayette County, Ohio, 28 September 1822. This marriage record listed in Gateway to the West - Ohio, Vol. 9, No. 2, Page 62 (April 1976). Wonder if this could be the Mary Polly Popejoy, dau of Edward and Martha McGarey Popejoy??

Have also recently received the marriage record for the following:

EDWARD POPEJOY married MARTHA PATSEY McGAREY on 13 January 1814 in Butler County, Ohio by the Rev. John Hardy (Vol. 1, Page 54, Butler County Court of Common Pleas, Probate Division)

I have received Edward Popejoy's War of 1812 records from the National Archives and was quite wurprised to receive 27 pages, and very delighted with the information contained therein - His service commenced 27 April 1812 and ended 28 April 1813. He was surrendered at Detroit on 16 August 1812 by General Hull (a very interesting historical event which has been covered rather well by historians since General Hull's men were released in about 17 days with a parole of honor not to serve against the British again during said war. It has also been stated in Edward Popejoy's deposition for bounty land that he was a prisoner until 20 September 1812. The rather famous General Hull stood court martial for his act, but apparently received only a strict rap on the knuckles). Edward Popejoy received 80 acres bounty land and returned his warrant for his original 80 and received the 160 acres due for his service. His Wife, Martha received a pension after his death.

Contained in the material are correspondence from a Mr. J. J. Hensley, 1159 North 77th St., Seattle, Washington to the Veterans Adm. and the War Department, Washington, DC, seeking information about Edward and Martha Popejoy. He states that Edward and Martha are his great-grandparents. He, then would be a descendant of their daughter, Martha who married a Hensley (probably John). His letters, as those from Washington government offices are all dated during 1939. Mr. Hensley also stated in one of his letters that Martha Popejoy(m Edward) was the daughter of John McGarey.

Have you, or do you know of any Popejoy researchers who have had any contact with Mr. L. Ted Sloan who lives in Davenport, Iowa. He apparently has been doing Popejoy research for several years. I hesitate to contact,him,although he has advertised in the Genealogical Helper seeking information concerning the Popejoy family, for two reasons: I feel that he may be only a professional researcher and not a Popejoy family member and secondly, he is an attorney who apparently owns the Richardson-Sloan Genealogical Society. He may only be requesting such information for a client. Mr. Sloan also seeks information on the Champe family of VA and Ohio - if your book is as I read the various lines - on page 153 it is stated that my Edward was a son of Terrence Popejoy who married #1 Elizabeth Champe. Really wonder who Mr. Sloan can be??

Hope the marriage dates for the Popejoys I have enclosed are of use and maybe some information you do not as yet have.

Am enclosing an SASE for you to let me know about the Mr. Sloan -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Sir:

I wish to procure a copy of the marriage license of EDWARD POPEJOY to MARTHA McGAREY. They were married in Butler County, Ohio, probably in 1813 or 1814.

I am requesting the above license of my fourth great-grandparents as needed proof for admission to First Families of Ohio and for family research on the Popejoy family.

I am enclosing my check in the amount of $3.00 which I hope will cover the cost of copy and an envelope for your convenience.

Dear Ted:

Thank you for the Popejoy charts. I have found the research on this group to be exasperating to say the least. It is usually very helpful when fathers name their sons after their fathers, etc., but this is ridiculous - must all Popejoys be named, William, Nathaniel, Terrence and John?

I have corresponded with Sherwood Conner of Heath, Ohio, who is a distant Conner cousin and not a Popejoy. He has been kind enough to photograph some of the stones in the local cemeteries for me, which included Edward and Martha Popejoy. I was delighted to have them. I have no knowledge of the Popejoy researcher, Shirley Hunt, of California. Her name was given to me by Jack Popejoy of Juneau, Alaska, but have not contacted her.

From queries in the Genealogical Helper in past years, I was aware that you were researching the Popejoy and Champe lines, but thought you might be doing this for one of your clients, so hesitated to write. I then saw your ancestor chart in the Report, Vol. 20, No. 2 and realized that you were a Popejoy descendant. From which Devault line do you descend?

Now to some questions -

Did Mathias Benson marry #1, Fanny Popejoy on 23 Dec 1830 and marry ca 1844, #2, Mary ________? Was Elizabeth Fent the sister of #1, Fanny Popejoy Benson or the sister of #2, Mary ________? The Mary Popejoy, wife of Mathias listed on the 1850 census (see endlosed) could not be his first wife, as she is only 25 and would have been age five years in 1830. Also, note age difference between the first two listed children and the other children. I doubt that Edward had a daughter Fanny Mary. Fanny, yes, but think that Mathias Benson could have married twice. Your thoughts, please.

The Fayette County court records record in Feby, 1870 that Margaret Popejoy Solomon lived in Green County, Kansas. I have been unable to locate a county in Kansas that was ever named Green. Could this have been Ohio, Missouri, etc.? I have not checked census records in any counties for this family.

You mentioned that you are rather a depository of the Popejoy records. Do you have Edward's War of 1812 papers, will, etc. If not, I will copy them for you. The are interesting, but contain little of genealogical value.

Jack Popejoy's second book on the Popejoy family will be published soon. He is quite ill and has turned it over to someone else to publish. I wish his work contained a little more proof. I was a little sad when he sent what I had submitted for the second book, to find that my proofs were missing. Many of these family histories become as the books of fiction that I process at the library where I work, unless the hard work of the proofs are included.

Thanks again, for the charts and am enclosing my line from Edward to the present and some of the census items of the family.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Thank you kindly for submitting the family information included on your several pages which was received here about 4 days after you mailed it. All has been gone over carefully and written into my own style of writing for the Popejoy Book # 2. Everything you submitted was exceptionally clear and no difficulties were encountered in making my write up from your presentation. Certainly wish I could say the same for many of the others who submit material.

My wife gave me a genealogy book for Christmas. "BRISTOL AND AMERICA". After studying the preface for a 3rd. time I soon discovered that our Immigrant ancestor WILLIAM POPEJOY (#1) did NOT ARRIVE in America on Aug. 10, 1680..... The preface states clearly that servants to foreign countries were ENROLLED prior to setting forth on their journies. Hence our Wm. Popejoy # 1 ENROLLED on 8-10-1680....... There was still another person enrolled 10 days later for the same boat, so said boat "Samuel" was still in the port of Bristol on that date - and would have sailed soon afterwards. It would have taken 6 to 8 weeks for the journey - so - All we can now say about his arrival in Baltimore, Maryland is "HE ARRIVED LATE IN 1680" And say that he did enroll on 8-10-1680 as an indentured servant. - - Sure wish we could come up with more on him- marriage- children- death date & place, etc. but due to fires and wars in the years past it may never be possible- yet, some researcher may discover something in some elderly newspapers which will reveal something important to us. (We hope).

The efforts made by Roy Ben Popejoy many years ago (see front part of my book) has been a help but it certainly lacks needed information according to todays methods of genealogy.

Since your letter and material arrived there have been two (2) more important lineages come in. One very long and another one of 14 pages I rewrote into only 4 pages. My manuscript is about ½ finished - but - here we go again for some rewrites, here and there. The more the better though.

We certainly hope you enjoy your copy of the Popejoy book and find something of value in there for you and your lineages.

Also hope you are managing to keep warm during these cold and unusual winter months. We are OK here in Juneau in spite of extra cold weather and the current DEEP FREEZE we are having. Some high winds too that make it miserable to be outside most of the time..

Best regards to you and all family members. Have a good 1982 and enjoy life as it passes day by day.

Jack Popejoy
C. L. "Jack" Popejoy

P.S.- In case you do not already have it - - here is your lineage (Popejoy generation numbers used....

William^{1}; William^{2}; Nathaniel^{3}; Tarrence^{4}; Edward M.^{5}; Alvina^{6}; Ella Ann Conner^{7}; Orrin Ometa Mitchem^{8}; Mabel Inez Mitchem^{9}; Mary Ruth Metzinger-Nunneley^{10}.

Dear Mrs. Otten:

I have only recently noted your Popejoy query in the above listed quarterly. I, too, am researching the Popejoy family, namely, Edward Popejoy married Martha McGarey in Butler County, Ohio. My Popejoy family originated in Virginia to Ohio about 1796.

I am mainly writing to see if you are familiar with the book, "Popejoy Family in America: 1700-1976" by Charles L. "Jack" Popejoy. There are several pages in the book which appear to be the family in which you are interested and which was submitted by a Thomas L. Popejoy, who was (1948) president of the University of New Mexico. The book is quite interesting, but lacks any form of documentation and should be used only for leads to ones own research.

C. L. "Jack" Popejoy is currently in the process of publishing another book which will update the first published in 1976. I heard from him last week and he has completed three chapters/plus index for his new book. If you have not corresponded with him prior to now, he would like your information for inclusion in the new book. His address is:

Mr. Charles L. "Jack" Popejoy
620 Seatter Street

If you have not seen the first book, I would be happy to copy the pages that appear to concern your family.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Fritz -

Thank you for your letter concerning the Popejoy family. I have just begun my research on this family, so am unable to assist you in revealing much about the family. My line is as follows:

Mary Metzinger Nunneley	1931-
Mabel Mitchem Metzinger	1908-
Orrin Ometa Mitchem	1868-1924
Ella Ann (Elsie) Conner Mitchem	1849-1926
Alvina Popejoy Conner	1821-1[illegible]
Edward Popejoy
b. 15 Sept 1786	Hampshire Co., VA (now W.VA.)
m. 1814	Butler Co., Ohio - Martha McGarey
d. 9 July 1864	Fayette Co., Ohio
	buried - Higbee Cemetery-Fayette Co.

According to C. L. "Jack" Popejoy of Juneau, Alaska, the line is as follows:

William^1; William^2; Nathaniel^3; Tarrence^4; Edward^5

He has given me no source references for his determination of the generations in America, since William the immigrant to my great-great-great-grandfather, Edward Popejoy. I have his book, Popejoy Family in America: 1700-1976 and have enjoyed it very much, but find little concerning the Edward Popejoy family and almost no source references for other information.

If you could be specific as to the information you need, as mentioned in your note, I would be very glad to see if I have anything you want - and can, if you wish, copy the family information I sent to Jack for his forthcoming Popejoy book he hopes to update in this year.

I, also, have some excerpts from Rankin and Robinsons, Chancery Court Records of Fayette Co., Ohio, which mention the Popejoys, which I would be happy to copy if you are interested.

I have recently noticed a Nathan Popejoy quite early in Ohio (do not remember the county) in one of the older Ohio Genealogical Society publications. I did not copy it, but will look it up again and do such. I work at the Bartlesville Public Library, so will use a lunch hour to find it. I do remember it was not listed in the index and should have copied it when I noticed it.

Sorry I cannot give you anymore specifics concerning this family beyond my Edward. Since I have been on the name for such a short time, I've much work to do.

Hope to hear from you again soon.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mr. Popejoy:

I am writing to inquire if your book "Popejoy Family in America, 1700-1976", as listed in the 1980-81 Books in Print (titles K-Z), page 3251, is still available for purchase. I am interested in purchasing a copy and enclosing a self-addressed stamped envelope for such information concerning availability and costs.

I am currently doing research on my Popejoy family in Virginia, now West Virginia, to Ohio. My great-great-great grandfather was Edward Popejoy, born Hampshire County, Virginia, 15 September 1786 to Fayette County, Ohio, where he died 9 July 1864.

Will be quite anxious for your reply.

Dear Mr. Popejoy:

Happy New Year! and thank you for your letter of 28 November 1981 and the very good news that the Popejoy book is still available. As you might guess, the holidays caught up with me and I discontinued correspondence for the month following your letter.

I am enclosing my personal check in the amount of $23.00 for purchase of the book. Although you stated in your letter that it was postpaid, the additional three dollars is so that you might send it First Class, or priority mail, instead of book rate. I am, also, enclosing a mailing label so that it can be delivered at work, which is much more convenient.

I am enclosing what little information I have obtained at this point on my Popejoy family. Since I have only within the past six months found out the name of my ancestor, Edward Popejoy (father of Alvina Popejoy Conner), my records are scarce.

Received yesterday, the will of Edward Popejoy and find he lists only his wife "Patsey" and daughter Malvina (?). Other children mentioned, but not listed. Now - is the Patsey really Martha and the Malvina (?) really Alvina - I am confused. The will is dated 4 July 1864, so must be my Edward, but still confused as to the names.

I do not know the middle names of either Edward M. Popejoy or his wife Martha McGarey. I, too, am very confused with so many John, William and Edward Popejoys with no middle name and few initials. I have recently found some Popejoys listed in a Kansas county history - one is, I believe (have not copied it as yet) Terrence Edward Popejoy. It is in our small genealogical library at work, so will copy it and send it on to you.

Hope many Popejoys and descendants get their information to you soon so that they may be included in your proposed book two. I would be very willing to donate, along with other interested Popejoys, to some advertising in the Genealogical Helper in hopes it would solicit additional information for book two. I think such an ad must be worded to "solicit additional information only" for publication and not become an ad to have Jack Popejoy do one's genealogy. It might bring new information, but again, might bring big headaches for you. If I can help, let me know.

Will close for now and am most anxious to receive your book. As new information comes to me, I will surely forward such to you.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

It certainly was a pleasure to receive your recent letter and to learn that there is still another Popejoy relative who is interested in this families past history.

Yes - There are still some copies of my book "The Popejoy Family in America 1700 - 1976" at $20.00 each POSTPAID. They are here in our home in Juneau, Alaska. The price of $20.00 is to Popejoy people ONLY, which includes distant relatives whether or not your name is Popejoy. The price to Libraries and any commercial sales is $26.00 per book POSTPAID. This reduced price is barely above the costs of Printing, Binding and postage. No profit to me, I assure you. It all began as a hobby and gradually worked into sufficient material for me to accomplish the publication of said book.

Since this book has become available and is in the hands of many Popejoys and relatives and in a VERY FEW LIBRARIES as yet, it has brought in many responses and much additional information that was not available to me before publication. Alaska does not have any appreciable Genealogical library sections to date. The only ones are currently in the making in Fairbanks City Library and the College Library a short distance north of Fairbanks. They both have a copy of my book. Have also been able to sell a book to the Juneau City Library (Just because we are Juneau residents of several years) and in the State Library in the Alaska Office Building in Juneau. Neither of which have any Genealogy section.

I had to get out a map of Oklahoma immediately and see just where your fair city is located because there are two (2) other ladies in Oklahoma who have been assisting me to a great extent. One lives in Sulphur, Ok. and the other lives in Roff, Ok. We write to each other often and keep exchanging information and recordings. - - I am now 73 years young and my wife a bit older than that, so we are both feeling our ages. Hence it is important to get a Popejoy book # 2 printed before it becomes too late for me to accomplish the task. Already, my typing is getting worse all the time and I make many errors. Have devised a system of numbering the generations in America: Thusly: William^1; William^2; etc. etc. designating the generation number in America. (See the enclosed sheet on your EDWARD M. POPEJOY and his wife Martha McGarry. - Questions: (1)-What was Edwards middle name ? (2)-Did Martha McGarry have any middle name? The omission of middle names raises havoc with this work in many instances. Have about 2 dozen JOHN POPEJOYS and nearly that many WILLIAM POPEJOYS with no middle names. - Building a family history and attempting to get people in their correct lineage is a very DANGEROUS THING. Too many mistakes get in there. Any way - armed with my 2 books some years later, other popejoy people will be able to make their own corrections and perhaps be in a much better position to produce still a better family history than I have done. To the best of my knowledge, my first book (named above) is the first ever printed on the Popejoy people in America.

The enclosed 3 ring binder sheet is to let you know what to expect if you wish to purchase one of my books. Sorry there is so little on your Edward M. Popejoy in Book # 1. Just thought you might like to see the amount at hand now proposed to go into said promised book # 2...... Will also enclose one of my own SELF REPORTING FORMS for you. Please fill it out to the best of your ability and return to me so you too can be included in book # 2. This form is of my own manufacture - Not a commercial one. Please give a biographical sketch of yourself. I do not like to leave any person a BARE STATISTIC if it can be avoided.

Jack Popejoy

Wishing you all a VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS and A HAPPY NEW YEAR. C. L. Jack Popejoy

HERE IS AN ITEM FOR YOU - IN CASE YOU DO NOT HAVE IT YET......

The book: "IMMIGRANTS TO THE MIDDLE COLONIES" by Dr. Michael Tepper, The Genealogical Publications, Tomball, Texas.

WILLIAM POPEJOY[1] (immigrant) came from Bristol, England on the British ship "Samuel", captained by Thomas Warnes, (Tepper, p. 71); he arrived (entered) America at Baltimore, Maryland on August 10, 1680, (Tepper, p. 66); as an indentured servant to his bondmaster who was "Thomas Lawrence".(Tepper, p. 69).

The above is NOT in Book # 1 but will be in Book # 2..... If you purchase one of my currently available books, you may wish to retype this and insert it into said book. -- This has been the first time this item made its appearance for any of us researchers, on the Popejoy people in America.

Book # 1 has nice articles on the ORIGIN OF THE NAME - Still another long item will be in book # 2 - if and when it gets itself printed.

Hope to hear from you again. CLJP

Received a letter from C. L. "Jack" Popejoy today. He gave me your address, but did not state which Popejoy line that you are searching. I think he would have told me that it is my line, and since he didn't I assume that you are not of my line. Would appreciate hearing from you at any rate. I have some Popejoys that I can't seem to locate. Become acquainted with a woman working on the Popejoy line. She has quite a bit of information on other Popejoys. She has just about wrapped up what she wanted on her line.

My line is as follows

William Walton Popejoy
Nathaniel Popejoy
Edward Popejoy

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Thank you very much for your very informative letter and its contents which you sent on April 1st. I was very glad to get all this info and have incorporated it into my final MANUSCRIPT as of this date. Some I had already but some I did not have.. In order to save much letter writing I have xeroxed 8 pages of the manuscript and will enclose them for you.

See my p. 294 - Nathaniel Popejoy m. Mary Gregory - Yes this was his second marriage. Material that has come in since my first book was published leads right back to that fact. His first wife "Mary Rankin" didn't last long- 1 year or less.

Your paragraph # 2 - Q.= Wonder if this could be the Mary Polly Popejoy, dau Edward and Martha McGarey Popejoy ? - - See my manuscript pages 393-394 enclosed. No - I don't think so - She dau John Popejoy 4 (4th. Gen. in America). At least her husband Isaac Cahill has landed under John Popejoy 4 previously and again now.

If you detect any errors in any of these pages, please let me know soon as the INDEX for the Popejoy Book # 2 is now in the process (Just beginning) A B & C pages can always be added prior to going to press which will be about June, 1982 - I HOPE. And of course pages can always be rewritten when necessary.

Edward Popejoy's War of 1812 records - Some of this in a more condensed form had previously been submitted as you will see on my page # 247 - I added page # 247-A and included your recent material to substantiate more of what was on pg. 247. This can still be revised if necessary.

There are so very many different people who have submitted material they have found and know about, that it is only fair and just that I give each contributor full credit for material they submitted. It seems to work that way-- some person publishes a family history book, then here comes in additional material and many letters so that soon a 2nd. book becomes necessary. In spite of all this I have about 100 letters out and unanswered. So and so was recommended I let them know the first book was available and said notice goes in the waste basket. I seldom chase a person a 2nd. time in these instances.

MARY "POLLY" POPEJOY - See my p. 247 - Mary$_5$ "Polly"^{5} (5th. Gen in America) dau. Tarrence^4 and sister of Edward M. Popejoy^5.

See my p. 393 = Mary "Polly" Popejoy 5, dau John Popejoy 4 - She m. Isaac Peter Cahill. and they had 2 daughters.

* * * * * * * * * *

Mr. L. Ted Sloan - - He and I had some correspondence in 1979 and another letter was received from him in January, 1981. At that time he said that his law business was getting in the way of his genealogy work. His last letter was mailed in an envelope carrying this return address: RICHARDSON-SLOAN, Genealogical Society, 501 Putnam Bldg. Davenport, Iowa 52801 - - - His 2nd. letter to me he asked, "Are you interested in the results of my research and do you want my connection to Popejoys?" To this I replied CERTAINLY YES. But absolutely nothing came of it. - - Well, 3 letters later I simply gave him up and still do NOT have his Popejoy connection. He apparently has some important material & is too busy with his law business to get down to serious family history. So- here I go to press without him. Also he stated that "Dorothy Champe" of Omaha ---had a trunk full of old papers and wanted to learn just what was therein. Note: A couple of the very early Popejoy men married a couple Champe ladies.

And again: Apparently Lou Allen Popejoy is on the same lineage as Mr. Ted Sloan. Ted wanted Lou's address so he could write to him. He also stated that he had corresponded with Mrs. Shirley Hunt with whom I had been in contact with for some time and she has submitted a great amount of material for my book # 2. I have no idea of material they may have exchanged with each other. Shirley has never mentioned him to me.

Well, so much for Mr. Ted Sloan - - The snow is melting fast in Juneau and area lately. Tulip bulbs are peeking up out of the frozen ground, so spring is just around the corner for us, up here. Streets and roads are nice and dry for the first time since last fall. Plenty of snow in the heavy woods and on our mountain tops all around us. Skiing will stop soon acct. of rotting snow in the higher levels.

Hope you approve of my revised method of showing the generations of Popejoys in America. Each number $\frac{1}{2}$ space above the names represents the generation in America. Of course there will be some errors in any body's writings. Absolutely nobody can be 100% correct. It is only some guy like me who is willing to stick his neck out and follow this business enough to THINK HE IS CORRECT in connecting so very many people to their correct ancestors. Hence, I am leaving the whole thing open to arguments and disagreements by any one who so choses to pick fault. At least my works will be a mighty good start for some other sleuth (s) in later years. The basics are here and there is much more to be added - esp. where only names appear without dates or places. Anyway (again) it has been fun and educational. After this book # 2 gets printed-- I QUIT. Enough is enough and typing is getting harder all the time. Had to put on TRI-FOCALS recently and they bother me greatly.

Please write any time. I always appreciate hearing from all who are interested. Here are my 3 main contributors: Thought you might wish to go fishing around so to speak....

PS: I was interested in your visit to Kansas... My mother (Florine Beatrice Trueblood Popejoy) died in 1913 when I was 5 yrs. old. I was sent to Kansas and stayed about 3 yrs. with her relatives in - SALINA _ PLAINVILLE and possibly some other place near by. The only living relative of hers there now is Mrs. Grace Sawyer - 310 So. Washington Street - Plainville, Kansas - 67663 - - And possibly a lady whose first name is Zilpha and lives across the alley from Mrs. Sawyer. I visited them about 1979. They are descendants of the Truebloods and Lamberts families. A sister fo Mrs. Grace Sawyer "Mrs. Blanche Appelgate" died in the Rooks Retirement home in Plainville, Ks. May, 1981. When I was 9 yrs. of age I was returned to Colorado - The San Luis Valley in Southern part of the state. Altitude 7,650 ft. And extreme cold winters.

Dear Jack:

Received you nice letter and the Xerox copies from the forth coming Popejoy book, and am delighted with the opportunity we will have to obtain another and updated book.

I did not send you the will of Edward Popejoy which was written 4 July 1864, because it has little or no information to add to the genealogy of the Popejoy family. He bequeaths to his wife, Patsey Popejoy all the ? estate and personal property except the buggy and horse (house) to go unto the hands of his daughter Malvina Conner which is her own to make her equal with the rest of the children. . .his wife is to have all notes and moneys belonging to him. After the doctor bills and funeral expenses are paid, said wife and children may agree to sell the property in Jeffersonville and so divide the money equally. Witnesses: J. S. King and John Popejoy. The will was probated 14 Sept 1864.

I have never seen, except in this will, my ancestor Alvina Popejoy Conner, listed as Malvina, but it appears fairly clear that her name is listed in the will as such. There was a little more in the will, but legal and not pertinent.

The following is an additional marriage which I could not locate in the Popejoy book #1 - you may have this as of this time:

Nathaniel Popejoy married Priscilla Matthews

13 November 1803 - Pittsylvania County, Virginia

From: Some Virginia marriages by Cecil D. McDonald, Jr.
1800 - 1825
Volume 2

Sorry to say, I neglected to get the page number. Mr. McDonald's works, though quite extensive, are not too thorough. I know several Virginia marriages which are not included in his works, so do not know how he operated or decided what to include.

I am a little curious about the mention of the wife of Tarrence Popejoy[4] having married Elizabeth Ann Champe, daughter of John Champe, Rev. War veteran. I wish I knew the source for this information. I have a list of the children of John Champe, Rev. War, and a child by the name of Elizabeth Ann is not mentioned. I might mention that I have also, found him buried in Kentucky and Hampshire Co., VA, so somebody is wrong! Since Elizabeth Ann Champe Popejoy is supposed to be the mother [illegible] of my Edward, I am quite interested about the statement that she is the daughter of John Champe.

John Champe apparently married Phebe Barnard and had the following children:
Eleanor m. Jacob Hartman
Amelia m. William Keys
William m. M. Mathing (?)
Mary m. Samuel Keys
Susannah m. David Wilfong
Nathanial m. Almenia Thomas
John L. M. Mary ~~Bretlinger~~ Brentlinger

No mention of a Popejoy.

Mrs. Davenport, in Popejoy Family, Book #1, page 153, stated the information concerning the Wife of Terrence as being Elizabeth Champe. I am sure she had basis for her statement, but I am unable to find a source for her statement, even though I have done some fairly hard "looking".

Re: Mr. Sloane of Iowa - he is doing quite a bit of advertising in the Genealogical Helper of late. Will do research, etc. I am, even though he advertised in 1979 as being interested in the Popejoy/Champe families of Ohio, a bit scared to try to contact him. And after your try, it feems not a good idea. I don't mind paying 10.00 an hour for a researcher, but not interested in paying 50.00 per hour for a lawyer/genealogistsand feel I might get involved in just such.

Thanks much for your nice letter. I am excited about the pages, but want the "entire" book as soon as it is available. Please put me at the top of the mailing list!

Salina, Kansas is quite a pretty city and reminds me much of our city, Bartlesville. The homes are quite old and reflect the movement from the northern and eastern United States as does Bartlesville. Our home was built in 1927 and has a very steep roof and basement as was the custom north and east where snows and weather required such building. We bought in 1974 after our transfeerfrom Tulsa (with Phillips Petr. Co.). We are, and have been, in the process of "redoing" for the entire period, since our purchase. It seemed quite a good idea to buy this old home with a basement and lovely upstairs at the time. My arthritis has not agreed with my added exercise running from basement to top floor. I had fallen on the ice in February and added to the problem by falling down the stairs from the top floor a week later. Think it is about time to move my genealogy "junk" to one of the downstairs bedrooms.

Must close for now and will continue to collect Popejoy information for anyone who is interested. It is a name that jumps out each time I find one in a book. It may not be mine, but belongs to one of our ancestors, so will collect them all.

Looking forward to the book -

Sincerely

Dear Shirley:

Thank you for your letter of inquiry about my Popejoy family. I am sending what small amount I have concerning this family, but am continuing my research at the present.

The chart sent to you by Mr. Ted Sloane was, indeed, from the Ohio Genealogical Society, Report, the Summer, 1982 issue. I knew Mr. Sloane was researching the Popejoy and related families, but had not corresponded with him. He contacted me and sent two charts. I responded, but have had nothing futther from him, but guess my papers were received since they were not returned to me.

My Edward Popejoy who married Patsey McGarey on 13 January 1814 in Butler County, Ohio is supposedly a son of Terrence Popejoy and Elizabeth Champe. I am unable to find proof, and know of no one who has proven such, do you?

Yes, my James Conner married Elsie (Alsey) Rose, daughter of Charles and Rebecca Rose of Monongalia, VA on 31 Aug 1813. I do not know the names of the parents of James Conner (I have seen the West Virginia Estate Settlements by Johnston, but have no idea who his parents are). I am a member of DAR on the Revolutionary soldier, Charles Rose of New Jersey (to Monongalia, Virginia). His children (a correction from the Johnston book) are as follows:

John Rose	married Eda (Edy) Boyce
Thomas Rose
Hopkins Rose	married Susannah Conner
Mary Rose
Rachel Rose
Rebeckah Rose
Hannah Rose
Freelove Rose
Alsey (Elsie) Rose	Married James Conner
Charles Rose

I, too, would like to know why and how John Conner and Alvina Popejoy got to Brown County, Ohio for their marriage. As early as 1820 there were McGarey's in Brown Co. Alvina's mother was Martha "Patsey" McGarey, so she may have been with family, but what was John Conner doing in Brown Co.?

I am sending a copy of the letter I sent to Mr. Sloane. I question the marriage of Mathias Benson and Fanny Popejoy and therefore question Elizabeth Fent as being a Popejoy. If Mathias Benson and Fanny Popejoy in 1830, then the Mary Popejoy listed on the 1850 census is certainly a second wife. She is only 25 and would have been only five years old in 1830. I believe this cannot be Fanny (Mary Francis) Popejoy on the 1850 census.

I have no information concerning the name Benson or Wiley. Have recently ordered the 1840/50/60/70 census of Fayette Co. and the 1850/60 of Greene Co., Ohio. The film is so expensive now, wish the government would be more prompt with orders. I will watch for these names.

I do not know the name Jo Ann Santee. Is she a Popejoy researcher?

Hope to hear from you again soon.

Sincerely Mary

Dear Mrs. Nunneley,

I was given a copy of your chart by Ted Sloane. At the top of the page it states: The Ohio Connection. It looks as through it was from the Ohio Gen. Soc. pub. The Report???. It also looks as through Mr. Sloane may have sent me a copy of your letter from him dated Oct. 7 since My name and Mr. Conners is listed.

I presume by now that you have had additional information concerning EDWARD POPEJOY & wife, MARTHA. But I noticed that I had some additional infor. other than what is listed. Such as Edward's death date from cemetery records (+ Martha's, & John & Alvina Conner's).

Edward Popejoy was a cousin of my 2nd great grandfather, William Popejoy who married Nancy Wiley. My William's brother, Nathaniel, served in the same company as his cousin, Edward.

I would like to share information with you. Your James Conner m. Monongalia Co. West Va. - was he the son of John & Mary ?? & his wife, Alsy Rose a dau. of Charles & Rebecca??

QUESTION: where How did John Conner meet Alvina Popejoy? I know that Edward left Butler Co. soon after he married & was back in Fayette Co. Oh by 1820 - SO how did John and Alvina get to BROWN Co. Oh 1838? Did she travel there with relatives? (It may be that Alvina's sister, Fanny (Mary Frances), who md Mathias Benson travelled to Greene Co. Oh. with the Bensons???)

By a strange coincidence, my mother was named after Iola, Kansas where your mother married. Iola Frailey b. 1910 in Wash.

QUESTION: Do you have any data concerning the name Benson? I am trying to find a connection between the Bensons and Wileys of Highland Co. Va. I had a genealogist in Fayette Co. Oh who wasn't worth her salt. Paid for info. I didn't receive.

Would like to hear from you.

Sincerely yours,

Shirley Hunt

Dear Shirley:

Sorry for the delay in answering your letter of 8 December. Mom is critically ill with cancer and I have little time to "genealogy" at the present time. I work at the Bartlesville Public Library and spend my weekends with Mom and Dad. They live 85 miles from me, so I do a bit of driving each weekend. My younger sister has moved from Louisiana to stay with them and another sister lives in Drumright, Oklahoma, so they have the big part of the work. Mom and Dad live at Drumright, so it is easier for the sister who lives there, but the sister from Louisana is really doing a big thing to leave her family (her children are all grown) and stay with them. Our other sister, Nancy, died of cancer in June, 1982. We sure weren't ready for Mom to have it only two months after Nancy died.

Now to your letter - I have found that Jack Popejoy (yes, I have been in contact) does not seem to rely too heavily on proofs. He, in all of our letters, has never mentioned any proof for anything. His first book was interesting and gave one many ideas for searching, but few proofs. I have just received his second book and it looks better, but he still did not, except for census records, offer many proofs. I would have liked to see a proof for each generation, which I am sure many have sent him. I really am happy to have the book and enjoying it.

I do not have any of the Giles Co., VA records. That was a real surprise! Mom has always said there was a Giles County connection, but we thought it was maybe Giles Co., Tenn. Her grandmother's first husband was from Tenn., and we supposed that was the area.

Ted Sloane - not only doesn't have up to date information, he doesn't acknowledge letters. I gather he descends from one of the Devaults, but he did not even give me that information. I baited him for years with queries and wouldn't write directly. He finally wrote to me and sent me nothing. I copied quite a bit and sent it. Never heard a thing. Guess it got lost in the mail (ha).

I have just purchased the 1840-50-60-70 census of Fayette County, Ohio. Working on the Popejoys, etal. Do you have all of the information from those census years? I have finished the 1840 and 1850. Will copy it if you do not have it. Some I cannot fit into the "known" families. I correct me, I have done 1850 and 1860. Working on 1840. It is going slow reading, since I have only my lunch hour to read. I stay so close to the phone with Mom so bad.

The following is what I have found:

I probably missed some of the families. Not sure that I know all of the married names. Who are the John and Nancy Popejoy (have the sons James F and McCandless' living in the household)? Also, is the William and Elizabeth Popejoy, 1850 (35-35) and 1860 (2244-2259) a son of Edward and Martha McGarey Popejoy?

Must close for now. I will send the rest of the census when I have finished. Sure it will be a whild. The 1840 is hard to read and it is really taking time.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Nunneley:

We are always glad to hear from you. Your letter dated 28 Sept, 1982 arrived here today, 7 days after being mailed. That is rather a long time considering that most letters arrive much sooner than that. All mai comes in viz Air these days.

One part of this genealogy business is rather sad. Quite often I receive messages like yours of today. Another family death and more sickness. In fact all this is the reason I brought my writings to a close and selected a printer. This time a printer who PRINTS - BINDS - Advertises and SELLS the books. Both of us are finding that we have ailments and might not be able to carry on with the sales to a satisfactory completion of the project. We have done some traveling and now find that it does not have the charm for either of us that it did only a few years ago soon after retirement. We will still get around somewhat though.

Ruth (Mrs. Popejoy) has diabetes and has to have naps daily and eat often in order to carry on and accomplish her housework. Over a year ago I had some physical exams and the Dr. announced that I had a cancer - but - not to worry about it because I would probably die from a dozen other ailments before this one would get me. Encouraging - Isn't it ?

We extend out sympathy and will offer our prayers for your sister, Nancy Anne Metzinger Phillips. Thanks for letting us know about her death and the condition of your mother. Please keep us informed on other happenings. As stated previously, I will keep making recordings of family hapenings so that some other person can carry on at a later date - if - One shows up someplace. And then pass on my recordings to him or her.

In my new book "POPEJOY, PAST and PRESENT" 1680 - 1980 - 300 years; your parents will be found on pages 249-250. Your sister Nancy Anne on pages 250 - 252..... A list of all purchasers and correspondents of book # 1 which you now have, has been furnished to the producers of book # 2. So you will be hearing from them (her) in due time. I hope it will be available before this coming Christmas. The company Is:

Ann Gregath - - The Gregath Company - P. O. Box 1045 - Cullman, Alabama 35055

Ann Gregath has called me twice recently and she seems to be real enthused about my manuscript and will be selling some of my book # 1 for me also. She holds seminars often to encourage the hobby and to sell books. Has sold 2 of my first Popejoy books during her most recent seminar in Alabama. None to Popejoy related people but who were interested in other allied lineages therein.

Thanks greatly for sending the xerox pages of 1744 Fairfax County, Va. Election Polls which show our Nathaniel Popejoy as being a voter. Right below Nathaniel Popejoy's name I also found the name of W. H. Terrett and near the bottom of the page - Col. 2 I found the name of Charles Broadwater. Both are mentioned in book # 2. You will find them on pages 11 and 13 (when you get the book). Well, due to increased prices and the fact that book # 2 will have more than 100 more pages than the first Popejoy book, it looks like the price will be $35.00 Ann Gregath is not going after pre-publication orders. I have paid her production price complete so no need for her to do that. She complimented me highly for submitting such a good manuscript - ready for photographing for offset printing. Said she receives many manuscripts on various stages of disorder and impossible to print from them and they have to be rewritten prior to the production process. Well, I learned plenty from my experiences in getting book # 1 printed, etc.- Only 300 books will be produced this time. First book was printed in 500 copies by a retired minister who had many imperfect pages, causing me a loss of 34% imperfect books. Have been repairing some by cutting pages out of one and glueing them into other books to make a book complete, but, what to do with them now? Plenty of good books left on hand however. (over)

I noticed that your sister Nancy Anne was born on May 6, 1908. I was born on March 1, 1908, a couple months ahead of her.

This is enough rambling for this time so will close this epistle.

Hope each of you are well and still enjoying life as it passes by each day.

Sincerely,

Jack Popejoy

November 19, 1983

Dear Mary Nunneley,

I am also an out-of-state member of the Fayette Co., Ohio genealogical society and noted your query in the August "Connection". However, it was of more interest after I heard from Elizabeth Gilmore of nearby Ross Co. concerning the Popejoys/Fleshers. She sent me quite alot of new information, particularly valuable this connection to the Champe family which was entirely new to me. Perhaps you have also heard from her?

Meantime, I have not had time to get to Detroit to the library to do any research, but with the Holidays coming, I thought it best to give you what little information I have, and we can get back together after January if this info fits with yours.

Enclosed my lineage charts for this family, the easiest way I know to give you the picture. You may keep these if they are of interest to you.

From Elizabeth Gilmore: "Henry Flesher md. Susanna Popejoy in 1810. His wife was the daughter of Terrance and Elizabeth Ann (Champe) Popejoy. She was born near Keyser, Mineral Springs, Mineral Co., W. Va. Her parents had emigrated from Fairfax Co., Va. ca 1778. Terrance was the son of Nathaniel. The immigrant ancestor Wm. Popejoy was in Maryland in 1714. Elizabeth Ann Champe was the daughter of Sgt. John Champe, famous spy for George Washington, among the British in Petersburg, Va. The first Champe ancestor was John who d. 1623, Jamestown, Va."

She didn't furnish her sources for this material so I have no proof, but she has provided me a couple of missing links. I had gathered some Popejoy data while in W.Va., and Richmond, last year, but was unable to pull the family together. If you have not heard from Elizabeth Gilmore her address is 21 Sulphur Lick Road, Frankfort, Ohio 45628 . I do not know if she has additional information on the Champe family in her file.

From ancestor charts, Bloomington-Normal Genealogical Society, v. 13 GLEANINGS, Mc Lean Co., Ill., p. 77 I have the following:

John Popejoy, b. 1758, Va., d. Washington Court House, Ohio, md. May Ann Champe, b. Aldie, Va., d. Washington C.H., Ohio.

Nathaniel Popejoy b. 1729 Fairfax Co., Va. m. (1) Elizabeth Dulin
(2) Ann?

Wm. Popejoy -see lineage chart information.

Wm. Popejoy b. 12 Jan. 1793, Hampshire co., Va. (W. Va,) md. 1817, d. 29 Aug. 1862, buried Indian Field Cem., Lexington, Ill. His wife, Nancy Jane Wiley b. 12 Mar. 1801, d. 1888, buried Indian Field Cem.

John Popejoy b. 9 Nov 1825, Jeffersonville, Ohio (Fayette Co.,) m. Jan. 17, 1846, Lexington, d. 1 Dec. 1921. Buried Lexington cemetery, (McLean Co., Ill.)

Peter Luther Popejoy, b. 26 July 1851, Lexington, Ill. d. 15 May 1919, Lexington, Ill., buried Lexington cemetery. - see next pg.

Leander Dove Popejoy, b. Aug. 25, 1871, Lexington, Ill., m. Dec. 14 1892, d. 26 Aug. 1932, Norfolk, Va. Buried Lawn Cem., Norfolk, Va.

Cecil Austin Popejoy, b. Nov. 3, 1895, Lexington, Ill., m. June 15 1922, Elsie Lora Doan.

PHYSICAL FEATURES.

Butler Township is fully four-fifths prairie land, and it is admitted by competent judges to be the equal of any in the county. For beauty of landscape, richness of soil and wealth of production, Butler Township, if not first, will rank as such before many years. With the advent of the Clinton & Osceola Railroad through its center, from north to south, it will be one of the most desirable homes for immigrants to be found. This will be accomplished within a few short months, and Butler will rank as one of the wealthiest townships in the county. Its population in 1880 was 1,399, and is probably now 1,500. It is the largest population of any township excepting Appleton, and far exceeds that township in agricultural population. In 1870 it was less in population than Chalk Level, but now exceeds it. Its gain during the past decade is as follows:

Population in 1880	1,399
Population in 1870	646
Gain	753

or a trifle over 115 per cent. This was more rapid than any other township in the county.

WATER AND TIMBER.

The Osage River on its eastern border is its resource for water, with the exception of two small branches, which empty into the Osage, and Gallinipper Creek, which touches a portion of its southern and western border. There are a few springs within the township, and water is easy to obtain by sinking wells from twelve to forty feet.

The timber lies along the bank of the Osage River, on the eastern side, and is of value. In minerals, the township is rather bare, though it is believed that lead exists in the southeastern part, on and near the river.

THE EARLY SETTLERS.

Among the earliest settlers in the township was Hugh Barnett, who settled on section 24, and came in the year 1838. Two sons, John and William, came with him. John settled on section 23. James Addington settled on section 14; John C. Greenwell on section 13, near the river, the same year. Christopher Greenup, James, William, John and Daniel Bunch all came in 1839, and settled on sections 2, 3 and 11. J. G. Williams and William Crowley came in 1837, and were viewers of a road in May, 1838, being appointed by the Henry County Court. Williams is now, if living, a resident of Colorado. William Snell also lived on section 14, and came about 1839. These settlers were leading citizens of the county for many years, and have left the impress of their energy of character upon the township. These were all in township 39, range 25.

In 1840, there came Eli Oden, who settled on section 35, as also did C. G. Browning, township 39, of range 26. Hiram and Horatio Short came the same year and made section 26 their home, same township and range. Clifton Browning and a Dr. Browning and Dr. Giles came also in 1840. C. G. Browning bought the southeast quarter of northeast quarter of section 35, of James V. Garnett, an early settler who came in 1837. Besides the few names here mentioned, there were very few settlers on the west side of the township as early as 1840. They clustered near the river and along its banks for miles, but no settler was hardy enough in those days to settle upon the open prairie, miles from running water and timbered land.

One of the first camping grounds in St. Clair County, was the Methodist camping grounds, located on the southeast quarter of section 25, township 39, of range 26. This ground was used as such as early as 1845, and people were known to come from twenty to thirty miles to attend the meetings. Each brought their provisions along, and it was a regular camping out, the meetings holding as long as the provisions held out. This was the Lord's work, resting upon the endurance of the settlers to stand the short rations. So far as the early settlers of Butler are concerned, they were in pretty good circumstances on their arrival. Not much wealth as rated at this day, but enough to purchase their lands and give them a start without enduring the troubles of a debt hanging over them. The Bunches, Barnetts, Greenwells, all came prepared to secure homes, and only their living to work for. They and their descendents have prospered.

The people of Butler have looked for many years for railroad transportation through their township. High hopes or great expectations had taken hold of their minds, and they had even gone so far as to lay out a city of metropolitan proportions to meet their new view of life when the outside world could be reached with the iron horse as the mode of travel. There are bright hopes now for this long deferred railroad being completed, and when it is the citizens of Butler will have cause for rejoicing. It will not only be a convenience but a source of wealth.

A PROMINENT CITIZEN.

In 1841 George W. Penn came to St. Clair County and settled in Butler Township. He was born on the 9th day of December, 1813, in Caswell County, North Carolina. For thirty years Butler Township had no more active and enterprising a citizen. He died September 18, 1871, at the age of fifty-eight years. When the town of Lowry was laid out he was one of its first merchants as well as its first hotel keeper. These
